A New Fraternal Order.

MR. W. S. DeLONG is in the city for the purpose of organizing a new order, the "National Fraternal Union," embracing the recent and most improved features of life and accident insurance and sick benefits. Dr. Frank Fithian has been appointed local examiner for the new order.

Col. Baldwin's Deal.

COLONEL W. W. BALDWIN, the turn-pike king, has sold to Fleming County seven miles of the Maysville & Lexington road for $5,000. The deal includes all that part of the pike lying in Fleming County, and is a section of the road where the raiders have given so much trouble lately.

City Property Sold.

SATURDAY auctioneer A. T. Forsyth sold for Master Commissioner E. M. Dickson a storeroom occupied by Jim Anderson, on Main, between Seventh and Eighth, to J. T. Hinton, for $2,195. It is understood that Mr. Hinton will put up a substantial building on the lot.

Auctioneer Forsyth also sold a house and lot on Pleasant street, at Master's sale, to John Schwartz, for $305.

A Terrific Storm.

A TERRIFIC wind storm accompanied by lightning, heavy hail and rain, passed over Paris Sunday about noon. The wind blew down a large tree in Sweeney Ray's yard, and broke many trees in other parts of the city. A sky-light in Talbot's livery stable was broken by hail, and the lightning burned out fuses in twenty of the Paris Telephone Company's phones. Lightning also struck the fire alarm wires but did no damage.

No serious damage by the wind or lightning has been reported from the country, but many acres of wheat were blown down.

Near Zanesville, O., John McFarland died from sunstroke, and his son and Mr. Barbour who went for the undertaker, were both killed by the lightning. The undertaker and his son were badly injured.

Heavy hail fell in Harrison and many acres of wheat were blown flat. Trees and telegraph poles were snapped and wires were blown down.

Latonia Turf Gossip.

DURING the twenty-five days ending Saturday at Latonia, only thirteen out of 120 winning stables, got over $1,000. Patterson & Co. head the list with $15,580, capturing the Derby and the Huiyar with Ornament. Baker & Gentry, winners of the Oaks and Tobacco stakes, have $9,535, and Turney Bros., who took the Decoration and Ripple stakes with Tillo, and several purses and "pieces," come next with $3,255. Woodford & Buckner, with the Harold stake and a purse, won $1,450. J. K. Redmond won $760 and Simms & Tarr pulled down $750. Of the Bourbon horses that scored brackets, Tillo won $2,700, Pink Coat $1,200, and F. F. V. $750.

Simms and Tarr's crack three-year-old F. F. V., one of whose legs filled up some after the Latonia Derby, is fast rounding out, and he will no doubt be seen at the post before a great while.

Convictions in Circuit Court.

In Circuit Court Saturday the jury in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Elijah Froman, forgery, found the defendant guilty and fixed his punishment at two years in the penitentiary.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. George Smoot, horse stealing, was continued until this morning.

Ex-Confederates at Nashville.

A SPECIAL train bearing a large party of ex-Confederate soldiers left Lexington yesterday morning for Nashville, where the national re-union begins to-day. The Lexington delegation was joined by a party from Richmond, and by G. T. Bradley and Ed Rice, of North Middletown, Joseph A. Miller and W. M. Layson, of Millersburg, Horace Taylor, of Carlisle, and John W. Boulden, of Maysville. Will A. Gaines and wife, of Georgetown, accompanied by Miss Poynter, of Owensboro, left Saturday for the re-union and Centennial. Mr. Bradley will also go to Franklin, Tenn., to visit his brother Robert.

Gen. John H. Reagan, the last surviving member of the Confederate cabinet, will deliver the oration at the meeting of the Confederate veterans at Nashville to-day.

Paris Milling Co. Officers.

THE Directors of the Paris Milling Co. met Saturday and elected W. H. Renick as President, and B. M. Renick as Secretary, Treasurer and Manager. W. M. Wolcott was elected Miller, and W. P. Evans Traveling Representative. Robt. Parks, who has been with the company for some time, was retained as book-keeper. The mill will immediately be equipped with the most modern machinery and appliances and will be one of the best plants in this section. The new manager is well known to the people in this section and his friends trust that he will be very successful.

With Pistol and Knife.

JEFF HARRIS was shot and perhaps dangerously wounded Sunday morning about ten o'clock, by June Johnson. The shooting occurred in the alley (running from Eighth street) back of the Shimmers building. The bullet, it is thought, lodged in Harris' liver.

Saturday night in Claysville Rob Fields and Henry Page were principals in a fight, during which Page was seriously cut in the head with a knife.

LETTERS from Tiffany & Co., of New York, to the Lexington Herald, state that the model of Joel T. Hart's statue "Woman Triumphant," which was thought to be yet in Italy, was destroyed five years after Hart's death. Sculptors say that the famous statue can be reproduced from the photographs of "Woman Triumphant."
